

Free classes:

New Westminster Public Library (Queensborough Branch)

- 45-min. 1-on-1 computer tutorials available on Tuesdays and Wednesdays

920 Ewen Avenue, New Westminster 604-636-4450
www.nwpl.ca

Burnaby Public Library

- The Tommy Douglas branch offers Computer Basics, Intro to Excel and Intro to PowerPoint; registration is required.

7311 Kingsway 604-522-3971
www.bpl.bc.ca/events

Surrey Public Library

- Drop-in Technology Help (Guildford branch: Tuesdays, 2:00) and Totally New to Computers (registration required).

Guildford branch 604-598-7366
15105 - 105th Avenue
Also available at other Surrey Public Library branches.
www.surreylibraries.ca/programs-services/5549.aspx

Queensborough Community Centre

- Drop-in technology help for 50+; first Monday of the month.

920 Ewen Ave. 604-525-7388

Fee-based classes:

Century House

- Keyboarding, Internet and Email; Laptop Lessons; Social Media and more. ($37 + Century House membership); for seniors.

620 Eighth Street, New Westminster 604-519-1066

Burnaby School District - Continuing Education

- A selection of courses including Keyboarding, Getting Started with Computers, Introduction to Social Media (1-6 sessions/$65-$215)

604-664-8868
www.burnabycce.com/

Community Centered College for the Retired

- Many courses for over-55s including Desktop Basics, Internet and Gmail for Newbies (2-10 sessions/$14-85 plus $10 annual membership),

6650 Southoaks Crescent, Burnaby 604-517-8732
www.cccrburnaby.org

Books & DVDs at the Library

Computers for Seniors for Dummies	004.16 M896c 2015
Computing for Seniors in Easy Steps	004.16 PRI 2013
How Computers Work	004.16 WHI 2014
iPad in Easy Steps	004.165 PRO 2014
Laptops for Seniors in Easy Steps	004.16 VAN 2017
My Android Tablet	004.165 JOH 2015
Teach Yourself Visually Windows 8.1	005.4469 MCF

Computer Learning in & near New Westminster

For assistance call: 604-527-4665
or email: askus@nwpl.ca

