

Teen Summer Reading Club 2023

Art Contest Entry Form

If you are submitting more than one entry into the contest, please fill out a separate form for each one. Contact information is collected only for the purposes of this contest and will not be shared.

Name _____

School _____ Grade _____

Phone _____ Email _____

I have read and agree to the rules of this contest as stated below.

Parent/Guardian consent to rules of this contest:

Name _____

Signature _____

RULES AND SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- Entries should illustrate the 2023 Teen Summer Reading Club theme of “Time Travel”. You may interpret this theme however you like in your artwork.
- Entries should be in colour, and include a reading or library-related element.
- Your art submission must be original, of your own creation, and never previously published.
- You must be between 12 and 18 years old.
- You can submit more than one piece of art, but you must hand in a separate entry form with each one.
- Do not put your name on your submitted artwork.
- Entries can be submitted in person to the Children’s Information Desk at the library’s Main Branch (716 6th Avenue), or by email to youth@nwpl.ca. The deadline for submissions is Tuesday April 11 at 8:00pm.
- A winner and two runners-up will be announced on April 25, 2022.

PRIZES

- One winner will be selected to receive a $50 Michaels gift card, and their work will be featured on NWPL’s Teen Summer Reading Club 2023 booklet and promotional material. The winner will also be invited to sit on the library’s Annual Art Exhibit Selection Committee in the Fall.
- Two runners-up will be selected to receive a $25 Michaels gift card, and their work will be featured on some smaller promotional items for the 2023 Teen Summer Reading Club.

By filling out this entry form you are granting the New Westminister Public Library unrestricted rights to use all or part of the submitted artwork in the library for promotional purposes online or in print form in relation to this contest and the 2023 Teen Summer Reading Club.